Locust Rendezvous was established in 1989. Surviving in an ever changing neighborhood, we have withstood the test of time.....Many establishments have come and gone, not sure what they wanted to be when they grew up. Fortunately, we learned early on that we were just a good bar with great food.

Nothing more - nothing less.

Our goal, as always, has been to make all our customers feel welcome. You will find when you come in regularly that there are many familiar faces. Our customers come from far and wide, remembering the great service, comfortable atmosphere and reasonable prices from their first venture thru our front door.

Repeat business is our mainstay, and all new are welcome.

Stop in, you'll be pleasantly surprised how nice it is to sit at 'the Vous' and feel like your back in your own neighborhood.....
